VINOTECA

di

SARTORIA

A flight through SOUTH AMERICAN WINE for £15

A land of extremes, South America's vineyards stretch from the high altitude valleys of the Andes to the cool Pacific coastline. The combination of intense sunshine, dramatic landscapes and naturally cooler nights creates wines with exceptional freshness, balance and character.

Argentina and Chile are renowned for their expressive varietals, from the bold, velvety Malbec and distinctive Carménère to elegant Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Each wine reflects the unique climate, soils and landscapes of the region – where altitude, sunshine and mountain influence shape every bottle.

Explore a selection of wines that showcase the diversity and spirit of South America.

The FLIGHT

50ml Serves

Crios Malbec

Susana Balbo, Mendoza, Argentina

Argentina's signature grape, Malbec thrives in the high-altitude vineyards of Mendoza, where intense sunshine and cool nights create wines with depth, freshness and elegance. This expressive example from pioneering winemaker Susana Balbo showcases vibrant blackberry and plum fruit, with subtle floral notes, gentle spice and a smooth, velvety finish.

Torrontés Barrel Fermented

Susana Balbo, Mendoza, Argentina

One of Argentina's most distinctive native varieties, Torrontés is known for its aromatic character and refreshing personality. This barrel-fermented expression from Susana Balbo balances floral aromas of jasmine and citrus with a richer, rounder texture from oak ageing, creating a beautifully complex white wine with freshness and finesse.

Novas Gran Reserva Organic Chardonnay

Emiliana Organic Vineyards, Chile

Grown in Chile's diverse wine landscapes, this organic Chardonnay reflects the country's cool coastal influence and mineral-rich soils. Elegant and refined, it offers layers of ripe stone fruit, citrus and subtle vanilla, balanced by refreshing acidity and a smooth, lingering finish.

VENEZUELA
COLOMBIA
ECUADOR
PERU
BOLIVIA
PARAGU
CHILE
URU
ARGENTINA